THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. RAMULU

WRIT PETITION No.21715 OF 2007

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a Mandamus declaring the action of the respondent Corporation in not appointing the petitioner as Junior Lineman as arbitrary, illegal and violative of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India.

It appears, petitioner has passed I.T.I. in Electrical Trade and underwent apprenticeship in the respondent Corporation for a period of one year, and in pursuance of notification issued by the Corporation on 10.07.2006, he has applied for the post of Junior Lineman (contract). When he was not called for interview, he had to approach this Court and, in pursuance of the interim directions issued by this Court, he was interviewed on 28.5.2007. Now the grievance of the petitioner is that though he fared well in the interview, he was not selected for appointment.

According to the learned counsel for petitioner, when the petitioner approached the respondents, he was informed that since he has filed writ petition before this Court, he was not appointed.

In view of the above, without expressing any opinion on merits, the respondents are directed to declare the results of the interview held on 28.5.2007 and, if the petitioner is found eligible for being appointed as Junior Lineman (contract), he shall be offered appointment in the existing vacancies, if he is otherwise eligible as per law, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

With the above direction, the writ petition is disposed of. No order as to costs.
